Registration Checklist [1]

Be familiar with UT's current academic calendar.[2]

Know important academic dates and deadlines, including registration periods.

View your RIS (Registration Information Sheet).[3]

Note your registration access times and any registration bars you may have.

Clear your bars.[4]

A bar is a restriction placed on your record that prevents registration. Any bars you may have will be listed on your registration information sheet.[5]

Know your remaining degree requirements.

Run a degree audit using the Interactive Degree Audit[6] system to check your progress.

Also check to ensure you meet prerequisites for all courses for which you plan to register.

Meet with your academic advisor if you have any questions.

ECE advisors are available to meet with students during walk-in advising times or via appointment. Please see our Advising page[8] for more information.
