ECE Alumnus, Yalamanchili Named as Regents' Professor [1]

Tuesday, December 8, 2015 - 2:30pm

Sudhakar Yalamanchili, UT Austin master's and Ph.D. alumnus (1980 and 1984 respectively), has been promoted to the rank of Regents' Professor in the Georgia Tech School of Electrical and Computer Engineering (ECE), effective November 1.

Yalamanchili has been a prolific contributor to the fields of high performance multiprocessor communication, multicore computing, and heterogeneous computing throughout his long and distinguished career in academia. Prior to joining ECE as an associate professor in 1989, he worked at Honeywell's Systems and Research Center and was an adjunct faculty member at the University of Minnesota. He has been a full professor at Tech since 1998 and has held the title of Joseph M. Pettit Professor since 2004.
